

The Montreal Job and Training Fair... It's the "Genuine Article"!

It's your life, it's your decision

Because a career is something you build, based on the choices you make...
Because help is available, for you to succeed and to make the right choices...
Because a visit to the Montreal Job and Training Fair can make all the difference...

Montreal, March 27, 2007: In just a few days, the Palais des congrès de Montréal will open its doors to the Montreal Job and Training Fair, which begins at 10:00 a.m. on April 11 and runs through Thursday, April 12, 2007. What exactly is this Fair? It's a gathering of over 150 businesses whose representatives are eager to meet you – a vast array of jobs and training in multiple business sectors. Admission is free, and no registration is required, so there's nothing to prevent you from checking it out. And these people are waiting to meet you!

THERE'S ALWAYS MORE FOR OUR VISITORS

Starting in early April, the official Website of the Montreal Job and Training Fair will feature a JOB section, listing the most recent job offers being promoted by the employers and exhibitors at the Fair. With just a few clicks, you can access a variety of job postings from our exhibitors at www.emploifformation.com/job.

A RECRUITMENT SITE FOR BUSINESSES NEAR AND FAR

The 28th Edition of the Montreal Job and Training Fair is honoured to host exhibitors who will be traveling a long way to recruit people. From the remote reaches of Quebec's Great North, the Conseil de développement économique des Territoires du Nord-Ouest and SOFA Yukon will be attending the event in order to tell you about their respective regions... who knows, you may even decide to change your route and head in a new direction! Another organization with the same objective is the Assemblée communautaire fransaskoise.

WORKING TO DEVELOP THE NEXT GENERATION OF PROFESSIONALS

This year, the Montreal Job and Training Fair has entered into a partnership with Université du Québec à Montréal students who are working toward their Bachelors degree in Career Development. You can attend any of four conferences given by these students, covering how to develop a resumé. They will also be setting up a booth, where you can get answers to your questions and receive advice.

PERSONNEL WANTED

Welcome, students and recent graduates! Whether you've already completed your studies or you're still working toward your diploma, the recruiters are here for just one reason – to meet with you. The organizations represented at this edition of the Montreal Job and Training Fair have many jobs available. Employee succession is a central issue for the future of the various industries. Come out and meet your future employers – they'll tell you what career opportunities are open to you... and they might even offer you a job right away!

CUSTOMIZED, CUTTING-EDGE TRAINING THAT MEETS YOUR NEEDS

The Montreal Job and Training Fair is also a unique resource for finding training opportunities that match your intentions and aspirations. Schools and training centres in sectors, ranging from automotive and manufacturing to finance, security, travel and animal therapy, are looking for people like you – people who are passionate and motivated. Some of the training institutions are based outside of Quebec – specifically, the University of Regina, which will be there to promote its French-language program.
