The Job & Training Fair, Latest Version

Montreal, August 29, 2005 – Under the influence of its new owner Mrs. Maud Allard, the Montreal Job & Training Fair is getting a make-over, with improvements that should seduce many visitors.

The Fair promises a fresher and more refined visual ambience for a most pleasant visit. Brand new Birch Wood stands should bring a warm and delightful touch. Revised and redesigned as a series of theme booths, the Fair will make it easier and faster for job seekers to find targeted firms.

Also, a Special Customer Service Team will be present at the Fair in order to guide and inform visiting candidates, therefore providing them with a warm and enthusiastic welcome.

Be a part of this important event which will take place September 27 and 28 at Palais des Congrès de Montréal. Admission is free.
