Montreal Job and Training Fair 150 firms working over a vast range of sectors of activity get together - -- New perspectives are everywhere.

Montreal, September 18, 2006: The countdown has begun: only one week to go before the return of the most all-inclusive Quebec event in the field of jobs, training and entrepreneurship. Thousands of full-time and part-time jobs, training that meets the most sophisticated demand, counselling, tools and conferences for self-employed workers and entrepreneurs.

Montreal Job and Training Fair

Palais des congrès de Montréal

Tuesday 26 and Wednesday 27 September starting at 9 a.m.

Open to visitors 16 years of age and over

Free admission

Does your career need a second wind? – Employment Pavilion

Stands, VIDEO CV and conferences. This pavilion brings together employers from every sector of activity, government departments and services, placement agencies, employment assistance agencies, and job-hunting Websites.

Opt for professional training – Training Pavilion

Stands and demonstration workshops. This is the crossroads for short- and medium-term professional training with or without opportunities for placement, career reorientation or continuing professional and adult training.

Self-employed – Freelance Work Pavilion (AgentSolo.com)

Stands, conferences and networking area. An answer to a growing need created by changes in the world of work, this pavilion focuses on the business development of independent professionals and micro-companies.

A little extra - *La Tête de l'emploi

Still more information and jobs! The magazine La Tête de l'emploi is distributed without charge to all visitors as they come into the fair. You can also find your copy through the cultural network and in the Greater Montreal supermarkets.

PARTNERS WITH A COMMON AIM

VOICEJOB.COM (www.voicejob.com)

VoiceJob.com offers you innovative recruiting solutions such as CV VIDEO and SpeedJobbing. Jobs seekers visiting the Fair may make a free recording of their CV VIDEO. Show your personality, your aptitudes and your motivation and attract the notice of the head-hunters. The CV VIDEO is a short visual presentation of your CV and of your professionalism: 60 seconds that will make all the difference!

How to prepare yourself to record your CV VIDEO

- Make sure your appearance and dress are impeccable... as if you were being interviewed face-to-face.
- It is better not to read a text during the recording and we would strongly recommend that you prepare yourself well in advance.
- Customize your CV VIDEO: behave naturally and adopt a positive attitude in order to show yourself at your best.

SpeedJobbing sessions with motivated pre-selected job seekers who will have 3-minute interviews with exhibitors in targeted fields. The formula is simple: each employer is sitting at a "speed-table", ready to meet you. Applicants will go to each table for a 3-minute interview. At the end of each interview period, a signal will be heard and the applicant will change tables for the next interview.

Freelance Work Pavilion (www.agentsolo.com)

For the third year running, AgentSolo.com joins with the Montreal Job and Training Fair to provide a pavilion dedicated entirely to the self-employed, to independent professionals and to micro-companies. The world of work is changing; companies' needs for professional services are being filled by a growing number of self-employed workers, freelancers, specialist consultants, contract workers, small- and micro-businesses. AgentSolo.com and the Montreal Job and Training Fair wish to play a role in this development of the labour market.

Billboard services and contracts offers available free!

A billboard placed in the Freelance Work Pavilion is separated into two major sections: one is dedicated to service offers for companies and self-employed workers, the other provides contract offers for self-employed workers. Take advantage of this opportunity to attract dedicated and motivated applicants!

JOBWINGS CAREERS (www.beljob.ca)

Created in 2001, jobWings Careers is the leader amongst specialized job sites in Canada and has 13 niche sites covering a wide range of sectors: finance, technologies, call centres, project management, law, sales, distributions, management... These sites are members of Publipac.ca, the only Canadian network of specialized job sites. jobWings Careers is also the founder of Beljob.ca, the most popular job-search engine in Canada. During the Montreal Job and Training Fair, jobWings Careers will be launching GAAP.ca, the first Canadian job site for accounting technicians.
